illuminating the Path of the Heart

Spiritual Practice
through dance & song with
dance leadership training

Dr. Tui Wilschinsky, USA

Mon. + Tues. 28/29.5. 2018

(Post Celebration Workshop option)

The Dances of Universal Peace combine devotional practices with chanting, simple movements and live music to open the heart and lift the spirit.

This class will also provide leadership training for new, as well as for experienced leaders. There will be a space to learn new Dances and practice existing ones. Learn how to shape and facilitate a meeting, deal with the untoward, ask Q&A, or just come on and dance!

Sessions: Mon. + Tues. 10 - 12.30pm, 2 - 5.30pm, 7.30 - 9.30pm

Cost: £70 one day, £120 two days, for NFA members £50/£80 for 1 or 2 days

Some bursaries available on request. Venue: Sunshine room, the Park

Dr. Tui Wilschinsky was born in the wilds of Brooklyn at a very young age and has been joyously leading the Dances of Universal Peace for 45 years. He is a senior mentor of the Dances of Universal Peace, an Expressive Arts educator and consultant, a mathematics and science instructor, and a senior teacher within the Ruhaniat Sufi tradition. He has an M.A. in Humanistic/Transpersonal Psychology, and a Ph.D. in Cinema/Sociology. He has met Samuel Lewis, led dances while traveling with Ram Dass, teaches regularly in Northern California and travels extensively. Tui facilitates heart opening events wherever he is invited, bringing awareness and light to every encounter, with a twinkle in his eye!

Tui will be assisted by Barbara Swetina, a Music Director at the Findhorn community. Barbara is a gifted musician who plays many instruments and has a wide repertoire of songs. She has brought sacred harmony singing into the heart of the community, and teaches songs and dances internationally.
